

AMERICAN BOAT IS IN THE LEAD

Columbia Seems Certain of Winning First Races of the Series.

WEATHER IS FAIR

Both Captains Handled Their Boats for All There Was in Them.

New York, Sept. 26.—No race. The boats failed to finish within the five hour limit.

Highlands, N. J., Sept. 26.—True racing weather greeted the crews of the Columbia and Shamrock when they began putting the finishing touches on their racers for today's contest. The skipper of both boats expressed confidence in the result.

Early in the morning groups of spectators gathered on the New Jersey and Long Island shores to secure the best vantage spots for witnessing the race and long before starting signal was given scores of yachts had gathered around the starting point.

No Delay in Starting

The wind was gradually dying down while the yachts were making ready for the start and a few minutes before the signal gun was fired had lost much of its velocity. It was coming in slants, probably averaging about eight knots.

Little time was lost in getting into position and no delay in starting. The Columbia was the first over the line leading Shamrock by five seconds.

Wind Became Stronger

At 11:22 o'clock it looked as if the Shamrock might be able to cross the Columbia's bow if she came about because she certainly had footed at a tremendous speed. The wind had become much stronger off shore and the Columbia began edging up into the breeze like a demon.

At 11:30 Shamrock came about on her starboard tack. As the yachts neared each other the excitement was intense and when the Columbia came about on her starboard tack it looked as if the Englishman had forced her about.

A few minutes later the Columbia came about on the port tack while the Shamrock kept along on the starboard tack. Columbia crossed the Shamrock at 11:50 showing the American undoubtedly in the lead. Then Barr flung his boat about again on the starboard tack.

Columbia Has Safe Lead

At 12:20 the yachts passed far Rockaway with the Columbia in the lead. At 12:32 the Columbia began to backwind the Shamrock as they stood along out to sea and the challenger began to fall behind.

The wind began to flunk about this time and the yachts were tacking incessantly as if looking for favoring slants of wind. Just before 1 o'clock the wind became very light and the yachts appeared to be rolling heavily in a ground swell.

The Columbia was well-berthed to windward and had a good safe lead over the Englishman. At 1:11 the Shamrock had pulled up somewhat in a lightened air.

New York, Sept. 26.—The first race between Shamrock II, owned by Sir Thomas Lipton, and representing the Royal Ulster Yacht club, and Columbia, owned by J. Pierpont Morgan, representing the New York Yacht club, for the international trophy known as the America cup, will be sailed today off Sandy Hook.

The two yachts are to race over a thirty mile course, fifteen of which will be to windward, and the race must be completed within five hours and a half. This race will be the first of a series and the winner of three races will be the winner of a series.

E. D. Morgan has charge of Columbia and W. G. Jameson occupies a similar position on board the Shamrock. On board the Shamrock, representing the New York Yacht club, will be W. B. Duncan, Jr., and the representative of the Royal Ulster Yacht club on board the Columbia will be S. H. McGilidowney.

Agreements Governing Race According to the agreement between

The New York Yacht club and the Royal Ulster Yacht club, the time limit for each race is to be five and a half hours, and if a race is not finished in that time it is to be repeated until decided.

The first, third and fifth races are to be fifteen miles to windward and leeward and return, and the second and fourth races are to be triangular ten miles to each leg.

In case of an accident to either yacht before the preparatory signal is made sufficient time is to be given to make necessary repairs, but if an accident occurs after the preparatory signal the yacht disabled is to stand by the consequences of such accident and the other yacht is to finish the race. This was the agreement made before the last series of races, and in the second race Shamrock lost its topmast and Columbia had a sail over.

Not Likely to Be "Three Straight." So far as anyone can foresee, the work of the two boats there is not a little hope that the one to be defeated will have at least one race to her credit.

If the cup is lifted we shall not be wholly without consolation, for we know that Columbia was simply our available and not our swiftest boat. But if Columbia should prove the winner, then the victory will be the most famous known to the annals of seafaring contests.

No Pains Were Spared

For more than a year Sir Thomas Lipton the owner, and Mr. George Watson the designer, have given money and time unstintingly to the challenger.

No pains were spared in her construction and none in the prolonged work of perfecting her trim, rig, and canvas once she was afloat.

How the men toiled to give her perfect smoothness has been told repeatedly, and the patience and care shown in this work has been typical of all that has been done in connection with the challenger.

Perfect as are the sails, the most capable sailmakers of England have watched and clipped and sewed them day by day.

Groomed to the Last Hair

To save weight and friction even the paint on her topsides was removed. Never before has it been said that to the last and most minute detail possible the challenger has been perfected.

Of the Columbia not so much can be said. But she is an old and well-tried boat, and save for a minor detail or two she has been brought to the best that is in her. In fact, if the paint had been removed from her plates above water, nothing more could have been done, since no time remained after she was chosen to obtain sails fit for the responsible task before her.

Betting Is Brisk

There was a noticeable tendency on the part of many sporting men to get their money down on the result of the international yacht races. The impression that the cup is in danger of being "lifted" was more pronounced than ever. But those who declared the American boat's chances would not invest their money unless they secured remunerative odds, and those who thought the Columbia the better vessel insisted on even money.

LABOR LEADERS ARE VERY ANGRY

Gompers and Mitchell Demand That Shaffer Prove His Charges Against Them.

New York, Sept. 26.—President Samuel Gompers of the American Federation of Labor, representing 600,000 workmen in the United States, and John Mitchell of the United Mine Workers of America, which numbers 150,000 men, are indignant at the statement of Theodore Shaffer, president of the Amalgamated association, in which he held them responsible for the failure of the steel strike. President Shaffer declared that Mr. Gompers had neglected the strikers by failing to keep an appointment with J. Pierpont Morgan, and that he steel workers had received no aid, financially or otherwise from the organizations represented by Mr. Gompers and Mr. Mitchell.

Mr. Gompers and Mr. Mitchell issued an open letter to President Shaffer offering to have the matter investigated.

BARABOO PASTOR DISAPPEARS

Dr. E. A. Mueller Leaves Suddenly and Sends Back Resignation

Baraboo, Wis., Sept. 26.—Dr. E. A. Mueller, pastor of the First Methodist Church of this city, suddenly disappeared yesterday, and his whereabouts are unknown. No member of his congregation knew that he was gone until Presiding Elder William Martin arrived here today with his resignation, which was accompanied by a note stating that he "was crushed." Dr. Mueller was unmarried.

WEAKNESS IN POTATOES

Anxiety of Holders to Dispose of Stock Causes a Ten-Cent Break

Chicago, Sept. 26.—Potatoes were on sale at the track market yesterday at most anything the buyers chose to give. Many holders did not hesitate to accept bids 10c under Monday's prices. Choice selected 70c, while not over 60c. could be secured for small stock. Three days' receipts have been 200 cars, and the market is much better supplied than last week. It is now more a question of getting rid of stock than securing a high price for it. Dairy products continue firm. Fruit is easy.

STARVATION IS FEARED AT NOME; INDIANS DEBAUCHED ON WHISKY

Trade Their Furs in for the Poisonous Liquid Instead of for Winter Supplies—Many Miners Also Destitute—Cable Is Again Broken.

Port Townsend, Wash., Sept. 26.—According to reports from Nome brought by the steamer Oregon, the Indians of the place are threatened with starvation. During the past few months about three hundred natives have visited Nome, bringing furs to trade for supplies. As soon as their goods were disposed of, however, whiskey peddlers got among them and they changed the proceeds of their sales for liquor.

The Indians have again camped on the beach, generally in a drunken stupor, allowing the season to pass in which they could lay in supplies of fish for use during the long winter period. Unless they are assisted by the government much suffering and starvation will follow.

Destitute miners from outlying districts are arriving at Nome. The United States steamer Bear on August 13 landed eighteen men at Nome. These men were found on the beach at Kotzebue sound, penniless and out of supplies. They had for some months been depending on what fish they could catch and the game they could kill. This party joined in the rush to Kotzebue in 1898, and have been there ever since. They report that during three years they failed to find more than a few colors of gold. The Nome banks have given out an estimate of the output of gold for the district for the season. They place the amount at $5,000,000, which is only a half million more than last year.

The passengers returning on the Oregon report that the cable between St. Michael and Cape Nome is a failure. In several places the ice has cut the cable. It has been ascertained that there are nine breaks. The gap was supplied with a new cable, but it has been damaged so as to be practically worthless. A surveying party has been in the field surveying a land route for a telegraph line.

Count Podhorska, accompanied by M. Ivanoff and M. Lupensky, sailed from Nome for the Siberian coast on September 4. The count goes as agent for Count Voulavsky, who is obtaining large mining concessions from the Russian government, and next summer a large expedition will be sent in. The present visit to Siberia is to locate sites for trading posts at the various places for the use of the expedition to be sent in.

ST. LOUIS PLANS ON A BIG SCALE

Manufactures and Liberal Arts to Be Housed in Buildings of Un-usual Dimensions.

St. Louis, Mo., September 26.—The exhibits coming under the head of manufactures and liberal arts will be housed in four buildings at the Purchase Exposition, to be held in St. Louis in 1903, with the following dimensions: One 600x1,200 feet, one 65x600 feet and two each 525x750. This was decided today by the committee on manufactures and liberal arts.

This action, with that already taken, will give to the coming world's fair buildings that will eclipse in size those of any other international exposition ever held.

Frank Galeane, president of the St. Louis local exposition, was today appointed chief of the department of manufactures and liberal arts.

AMERICANS WON THE TRACK MEET

English Athletes First in Only Three of the Nine Events on the Berkeley Oval.

New York, Sept. 26.—The athletes of Yale and Harvard met the athletic representatives of Oxford and Cambridge universities yesterday afternoon at Berkeley Oval in track and field contests, and as was expected, the brawn and muscle of the American collegians proved to be too much for the visitors, the Americans winning six out of the nine events on the program. Points were counted for wins only, so that the Harvard and Yale men defeated their English opponents by a score of 6 points to 3.

A better condition of affairs weatherwise could not have been desired, as during the greater part of the afternoon the athletes were favored by warm sunshine and a cooling breeze, which blew down the home stretch but was not strong enough to aid the flight of the runners.

Between the American universities honors were equally divided, Harvard and Yale each winning three events. The Oxford representatives failed to gain a point for the visiting team, the light blue of Cambridge being in front in all three contests which were won by the Englishmen.

PLANS TO IMPROVE BERLIN

Emperor Hopes to Make His Capital the Handsomest City in the World

Berlin, Sept. 26.—Emperor William is having plans made for improvements of Unter-den-Linden by removing the mansions close to the celebrated Brandenburg Gate and erecting a monument to the late Empress Frederick in that vicinity. He has expressed the hope that in time he will be able to make Berlin the handsomest city in the world.

Thomas S. Nolan went to Milwaukee this morning on legal business.

SELECT SITE FOR MCKINLEY SHAFT

McKinley Memorial To Overlook Canton from West Lawn Cemetery—Incorporation Papers Prepared

Canton, O., Sept. 26.—The McKinley National Monument association, composed of Judge Day, Mayor Robertson, Henry W. Harter, John C. Welty, William A. Lynch and F. E. Case, has framed papers, asking for incorporation under the laws of Ohio.

The incorporators are the members of the executive committee which had charge of the McKinley funeral. The committee visited Westlawn cemetery this afternoon and choose a site for the proposed memorial. The spot selected is on an eminence overlooking Canton, commanding a fine view of the surrounding country. It is expected that President Roosevelt will name men of prominence to act as directors of the association.

The military guard at the vault where the late president's remains are lying has been reduced, but the entire company still remains encamped nearby.

LOW WILL ACCEPT THE NOMINATION

One of the Most Vigorous Fights in the History of New York Is Now in Progress.

New York, Sept. 26.—Seth Low, famed by the fusionists as candidate for mayor, will accept the nomination. At his home, No. 30, East Sixty-fourth street, when he was asked whether he had anything to say for publication, he replied:

"All I care to say at the present time is that when I am formally notified of my nomination I shall accept it."

"I shall devote all of my time and energies to the campaign. I shall waste no time in interviews, but shall immediately begin the work of seeing the people."

Low announced today that he would renounce the presidency of Columbia university. This will probably be when he is formally notified of his nomination.

SOLDIERS' MEMORIAL AT VALLEY FORGE

Foundation Stone Laid for Monument to Washington's Soldiers Who Perished in 1777-78 Encampment.

Philadelphia, Pa., Sept. 26.—At Valley Forge this afternoon the foundation stone was laid for the memorial to the soldiers of Washington's army who perished in the encampment of 1777-78. A large number of Daughters of the Revolution of this city attended the ceremony.

The monument, the first to be erected at Valley Forge, will be unveiled and formally dedicated at Yorktown, October 19. Invitations to attend have been extended to the president and members of the cabinet, distinguished representatives of the army and navy, governors of the thirteen original states, and to the officers of the various patriotic organizations.

The memorial is an obelisk of Barre granite adorned with bronze panels, and is erected a few feet from the only marked grave in Valley Forge, that of Lieutenant John Waterman.

GREEN TOBACCO PUT IN THE SHEDS

Farmers Fearing Frost, Cut Their Tobacco Plants Before They Are Ripe.

The growers of late tobacco are finding hope in the hot and dry weather and if severe cold holds off for two weeks, longer, the late tobacco, the planting of which was a venture which caused much comment, will ripen and be a splendid success. The recent frosts did not do much damage except in sections where the ground is low. Some of the growers suffered quite a scare from the frost, however, and several fields of unripe tobacco have been cut and put into the sheds. This seems a foolish proceeding for it is asserted that some of the latest leaf which had not even headed out has been cut. What growers expect to do with it is a mystery to tobacco men for it will be impossible to cure it. Even that which had been topped and then not allowed to stand long enough before cutting will not bring any better price than frost-tobacco so it is difficult to see what has been gained.

USE HORSE MEAT FOR FOOD

Vienna Poor Unable to Buy Beef, Mutton and Pork

Washington, D. C., Sept. 26.—United States Consul General Hurst at Vienna has just sent to the state department a report of the utilization of horse meat for food at the Austrian capital. He says:

"The comparatively high prices obtaining in Vienna for beef, mutton and pork put these meats beyond the reach of the poorer classes, who are most taxed by hard labor and are obviously in need of strength giving food. Nearly half a century ago, the experiment of putting horse meat on the market was made for the first time. The price of horse-meat ranges, per pound of fore-quarter, from 5 to 8 cents; hind quarter from 6 to 9 cents; choice cuts for steak and roast from 5 to 11 cents. The same cuts in beef average from 20 to 24 cents per pound. The horse meat is also worked up into sausages and as such sells at correspondingly low prices. The horse meat butcher shops of which there are no less than 185 in this city, present a clean and attractive appearance and are in no way distinguishable from other shops."

GRAND TEMPLAR IS DYING.

J. J. Hickman of the Independent Order of Good Templars.

Columbia, Mo., Sept. 26.—J. J. Hickman, Past Worthy Grand Templar of the Independent Order of Good Templars of the World, is at the point of death at his home here. He has been dangerously ill for nearly two months.

Rev. Father W. A. Goebel, S. Roelling and Contractor Tappendorf went to Milwaukee this morning on business connected with the new church.

CAPTAIN WISE IS CORRECTED

Signal Book Shows He Passed Within Hailing Distance of Schley.

NOT PULLING WELL

Gen. Rayner and Capt. Parker, Schley's Counsel, Don't Work Well Together.

DEAR SCHLEY LETTER

Washington, Sept. 26.—There was but one session of the Schley court on account of the funeral of Judge Wilson. Admiral Dewey called the court to order at eleven o'clock. Captain Wise of the Yale was the first important witness heard today. He was recalled to finish testimony begun yesterday. He said that he gave no information to Schley concerning Cervera's whereabouts but had told Capt. Sigbee whose duty, he declared, it was to inform Schley.

Wise said that his boat had at no time passed within hailing distance of the Brooklyn but Schley's counsel produced signal book showing that the Yale had frequently signalled the Brooklyn. Wise then recalled the signals showing that he was many times within easy hailing distance of the Brooklyn.

Schley's Attorneys at Outset Several circumstances in the morning session indicate that the two lawyers acting for Admiral Schley—Attorney General Rayner and Captain Parker—are not pulling well together. While Judge Wilson was in the case, he conducted the defense, assisted by the other two attorneys. His death leaves Rayner and Parker ranking equally in importance. Several times Parker objected to question Rayner was willing to admit, and the differences irritated the former considerably. Admiral Schley appeared to rely mainly on Attorney Rayner. Parker, although an ex-navy officer found it difficult to figure as prominently in the proceedings as he wished.

The Suppressed Dispatch Today the counsel for Admiral Schley laid much stress upon what they termed a "suppressed dispatch" and had it read in court. It turned out to be a letter written early in the morning of May 20 by Admiral Sampson beginning "Dear Schley." In it Sampson announced that notwithstanding the rumors that the Spanish ships were at Santiago, he should adhere to the plan of campaign already laid down, and continue the blockade of Havana and Cienfuegos.

Counsel claim this is ample justification for Admiral Schley's remaining as long as he did at Cienfuegos.

ATHLETIC TRUST BEING ORGANIZED

Andrew Freedman of New York, at the Head of a Combine with a Capital of $50,000,000.

New York, September 26.—A great trust in base ball and professional athletics is being organized by magnates of the National League, headed by President Hart of the Chicago club and Andrew Freedman of the New York club.

Articles of incorporation of the National Athletic company, which is to be the name of the new combination, have been drawn up and the promoters expect to complete the project so rapidly that they will have control of professional athletes before the opening of the season next spring.

A great saving in expenses and the abolition of the costly warfare now waged between organizations and between rival magnates and players is contemplated.

Whether Hart and Freedman and their assistants expect to seek control at once of cricket, athletic sports and other branches of baseball, they will not say.

The contemplated capital stock is $50,000,000. The main object of the combine will be to merge the National and American Leagues.

BIG FOREST FIRES ON HAWAII ISLAND

Thousands of Acres Swept by Flames, Which Have Burned Unchecked for Several Weeks.

Honolulu, Sept. 18, via San Francisco, Cal., Sept. 26.—The forest fire reported in the Hamakua district several weeks ago is burning yet, and threatens incalculable damage to the plantations and forests. It has swept thousands of acres and at last reports it was driven by strong winds and was threatening a tract of between 40,000 and 50,000 acres of forest. It is estimated that the fire is twenty miles in length.

CZOLGOSZ GIVEN DEATH SENTENCE

The Assassin Will Be Executed in the States Prison at Auburn on October 28.

Buffalo, September 26.—Assassin Czolgosz was today sentenced to be electrocuted October 28 at the state prison at Auburn.

CREED OF THE RED ANARCHISTS; ASSASSINATION MANUAL FOUND

Full Instructions Given as to Methods To Be Employed by Men Selected to Murder Rulers or Other Objectionable Persons.

Czolgosz, the president's assassin, carried with him the creed of the anarchist society to which he belongs and a pamphlet detailing advice for successful assassination issued by an organization whose avowed purpose is murder, says the New York Herald's special correspondent at Buffalo. These have been found by the police and are printed in full below. They comprise two of the most cruel documents ever issued by civilized beings. In full detail and with marvelous cunning such recruits as Czolgosz were initiated thus into the mysteries of the order and the successful accomplishment of its ends.

The manual purposes to give some instruction to assassins. It is constructed in so cunning a manner that a man like Czolgosz must surely have been impelled with a desire to follow out its directions.

This manual is the work of the Free society, of which the anarchists now under arrest in Chicago are said to comprise many of the members of the executive committee. It is the most sensational proof of the existence of a plot yet discovered. A copy of it is as follows:

We hereby bind ourselves together to advocate and work for the destruction of the existing social order, with its laws and institutions and the common division of property. We hold it to be self evident that the government, the law, the schools, the churches and the press are in the pay and under the control of the capitalists and will never consent to the laborer's demands unless compelled by force.

We maintain that all property owned by corporations, or individuals should be destroyed and all capital which has been produced by labor should be transferred into common property, for it is only when capital is made common and indivisible that all can be made to partake fully and freely of the fruits of common activity. Only by the impossibility of acquiring individual capital can every one be compelled to work who claims a right to live. As in former times, no privilege in the class ever relinquished its tyranny. No more can we take it for granted that the capitalists of the present day will forego their privileges and their authority without compulsion.

It is therefore the fight of the proletariat against the upper and the middle classes must be of violent character and that mere wage conflicts can never lead to the goal.

We show by numerous illustrations that all attempts which have been made in the past to do away with existing monstrous social systems through peaceful means—for example, the ballot box—have been utterly useless, and will be so in the future. We know, therefore, that the ruling class will not voluntarily relinquish the prerogatives and will make no concessions to us.

Under all these circumstances there is only one remedy left—force. Our platform is simple and divided as follows:

Contents of the Manual.
First—Destruction of existing class domination through inexorable revolution and international activity.
Second—The building of a free society on communistic organizations or productions.

Third—Free exchange of equivalent products through the productive organization, without jobbing and profit making.

Fourth—Organization of the educational system upon nonreligious lines and on an equal basis for both sexes.

Fifth—Equal rights for all without distinction of sex or race.

Sixth—The regulation of public affairs through agreements between the independent communes and confederacies.

Among the belongings of Czolgosz was found a manual of instructions for the successful execution of anarchist assassinations by knife or bullet, together with complete details of plans, and a method of supplying the assassin with funds. Rules for his conduct under all circumstances are supplied. The words "murder" and "assassination" are not used, but for them is substituted "event" and "action."

The manual contains the following: Will Be Three Periods. There will be three periods in any event: (1) The period of preparation for the action; (2) The moment of the action itself; (3) The portion of time which follows the deed. It is easily comprehensible to everybody that the danger of discovery is the greater the more numerous the number of people or the group which contemplates the deed. When a deed is decided upon let a comrade be selected in the usual way, who does not live at the place of "action."

Whoever is selected and willing to execute the deed must put the question to himself and answer it to the satisfaction of his comrades, as well as his own, whether he is able or not to carry out the action by himself. If he gives perfect assurance of sufficient mental control and resolution to perform the deed singly, let him absolutely initiate no one in the matter and let him "act" alone. But if that is not the case let him look with the greatest care for just as many fellows as he must absolutely have—no more, no less.

Let there be no discussion of the deed in groups, for useless debates develop, and the danger of discovery is enhanced. Let the comrade or comrades observe perfect silence. If there is any talk, then the thing is at once hung upon a great bell, and it would soon reach the ears of "the men who hear the grass grow and the fleas cough." "Does the selected man possess head as well as heart?" Has the formation of the plan been perfected? "Is the manner of execution clearly understood?" These answered in the affirmative, then let "action" follow with the greatest possible swiftness.

Let there be no delay, for now you move within the scope of the greatest danger, for you may be detected; you may have committed treason or conspiracy and may be apprehended before you have a opportunity of reaping the precious fruit of your design. So, let us repeat, when these points are settled strike without delay.

As to "action," as to the scene of action, select personally that point of vantage which seems to absolutely insure success, even though some comrade must necessarily sacrifice himself. Success, success, success must be the constant watchword, for there is nothing like the success of an action to inspire an impulse for a new deed. Too great care, therefore, cannot be exercised in the matter of selecting the scene of action. If a sacrifice is necessary, let the comrade remember that his death is a martyrdom to the cause and his memory will be cherished as a patriot. Life at its best is fleeting and full of mystery. What comrade would hesitate to give away his breath for such a glorious moment? But valiant comrades must not sacrifice themselves needlessly, recklessly or foolishly, so it is therefore imperative that all deeds shall be done singly whenever practicable, or if not by as few a number as possible.

Owing to a failure of a number of "actions" the idea is hereby suggested of poisoned weapons to be used for assault. The best suggested is a curare, for it is absolutely fatal, whether administered through the agency of a knife or a bullet. It is, however, very high priced. Verdigris is quite effective and inexpensive. All poisons must be prepared immediately before using or they lose their effectiveness and become innocuous.

Show a comrade desire to address an associate in writing, use a fictitious address, which should be frequently changed.

Never mention the true name of a confederate, let alone write it. Never make a communication of a fact which is not necessary for your associate to know.

Cipher letters or messages are not desirable. Cipher is a suspicious method of communication and is liable to detection. There are several kinds of invisible inks (recipes are here given) which can be read when held before a bright light, but these are so common that the police know them and generally apply all known tests to any suspicious looking blank paper. When communications are written in invisible ink, use the margin of a complete newspaper, which may not arouse suspicion. If a communication of any kind is received, destroy it at once completely by fire.

Never retain anything which may lead to detection of any kind. This rule applies especially to any enterprise directed against representatives of onerous institutions or legislative officials.

A deed should never be talked about, but silently pursued. Avoid the society of all suspected persons, remembering that those who are not with you are against you. After a deed is designed make no new friends.

In the event of arrest self composure in arrest is absolutely essential. Only when arrest can be successfully resisted should there be any attempt at it made.

If the authorities who arrest you are of small mental calibre and are in the dark, acting merely on suspicion, submit quietly.

In an examination by a judge admit nothing except what you know the authorities can positively prove against you, always having in mind your alibi or whatever defense is proposed.

When all means of defense are exhausted, then let the prisoner defend his deed from the view point of true anarchy and convert the defendant's seat into a speaker's stand.

Keep up hope as long as possible, but when you are irredeemably lost, use your respite for the propagation of your principles and meet your punishment, whether death or imprisonment, with the unflinching calmness of a patriot.

Funds will be furnished. Permanent, public groups of comrades will be formed from time to time. There are many now in existence to serve as a cover for the active workers in the cause. These permanent groups are the sources from which the necessary pecuniary means are drawn for the continuance of our pledged, inexorable activity.

Comrades engaged in action will be liberally supplied with funds for all occasions. From these permanent groups active, tested men will be recruited for the cause, as excellent opportunity is afforded to study the devotion and stability of members herein.

WRECK OF THE CANNING FACTORY

New View of the Chicago Tribune On the Peculiar Circumstances of the Affair.

Janesville, Wis., claims credit for the most peculiar railroad accident of the year, says the Chicago Tribune. Liking for pickles on the part of a railroad engineer caused the runaway of a locomotive, the wrecking of a big canning factory, and a loss to the company of nearly $65,000. Two Chicago men figure in the story.

P. Hohenadel, Jr., and P. A. Marsh of this city, operated a canning factory at Janesville under the firm name of the P. Hohenadel Jr. company. About $75,000 was invested in the plant, and half a million cans, half filled with corn, tomatoes, and pickles, rested securely on the shelves of the two-story brick operating building. Meeting the operating building at right angles was a warehouse. A switch of the Chicago & Northwestern railroad ran down past the warehouse and ended up close to the operating department.

The switch inclines rather sharply from the main line to the factory. On August 24, a Northwestern railroad engine, with an empty car attached, stood at the head of the switch, prepared to back down to the operating department of the factory.

The engineer had a liking for pickles or any toothsome substance that the canning factory produced. Accordingly, when he had backed his engine safely off the main track, he climbed out of the cab and went inside the factory. Switch engine No. 4,187 stood on its tracks, firm and docile, so the fireman thought that he too, might indulge in a sharp pickle, or possibly stow a few cans of corn under his blouse. He, too, climbed down and followed the engineer.

And No. 4,186 stood alone. "Pickles, pickles, did they say?" reflected the engine. "Now I don't know but I'd like a pickle or two myself, or possibly a can or two of to-totes for the family. Now, I wonder."

The old switch engine looked over the box car and down the switch track. There at the end of the line stood the factory, evidently bulging with canned goods.

The engine gave a start and in an instant was speeding down the track. How the locomotive did it remains a mystery. Certain it is, however, that old No. 4,186 shot down the line toward the canning factory, gaining speed with every yard of track. By the time the last stretch of the track was reached the old switch engine was going like the locomotive of an express train.

Bang! The engine crashed into the bumper at the end of the switch with a noise that was heard for half a mile. The bumper went out of business in that instant. The old engine sped on and jammed the empty car against the factory with a fearful force.

The car struck half a dozen or more of the factory supports with mighty impact. The supports collapsed. The big water tank on top of the building gave way and crashed down upon the roof. The whole building, with its half a million of tomato and corn cans and pickle receptacles, collapsed like a card house and fell down about the car. The car was fairly buried in the ruins. It was a salubrious baptism of corn, tomatoes and pickles that it got.

The factory employees were off duty and the firm members were in the warehouse with the engineer and fireman of the locomotive, so no one was injured, but the canning men, and the railroad men, turned as red as the tomatoes, then as white as the corn, and later as green as the pickles when they surveyed the ruins.

Half a million cans and a two-story brick building when properly mixed and diluted with a huge tank of water makes a lasting impression. The sight will last the railroad men for a lifetime.

Weekly Gazette Reaches the Fireside of County Homes

Four thousand copies of the Weekly Gazette are being printed at each issue and the principal distribution is made in Rock County. Janesville with its central location in the county and its large representation in all lines of merchandise is the most natural trading point. The Weekly Gazette reaches the majority of buyers in merchandise; it is the best "puller;" the quickest and at the same time most reasonable priced medium for getting directly into the homes of Rock county people, that is obtainable. Copy for first edition can be handled up to 3 o'clock Tuesdays and for last edition 3 o'clock Friday afternoons. An increase in your outside trade can be made through the Weekly Gazette.

THE HIGH ROLLERS AT MYERS GRAND

Possibly a personal description of the High Rollers, that is, the female portion of the combination, will be more interesting to our masculine readers who dote on burlesque performances and the enchantress of the vaudeville stage, than any reference to the real work of the company during the performance; but all reports as to the show given by the High Rollers agree that it is the best road show this season, and equal to any of the stationary New York productions at any of the leading burlesque or vaudeville theaters. This is very unique, almost startling, for the major part of them are of such sameness and tameness, that they seem the project of managers wincing craniums are absolutely unfurnished with any cerebral furniture, but we pass this part and describe the girls, for upon their appearance and beauty hangs all the fame and halo of burlesque. A neat head, pettiness of feature, a winsome, intelligent expression, luminous eyes, a rippling mass of dark velvet hair, ears like poems, teeth as pebbles whitened by the sea, lips that rhyme with compare to coral, and all that sort of thing, with figures of Venus perfection, with a champagne effervescence of manner as vivacious as Yvette Guilbert, and as full of bottled up chic as Anna Held. This is a description of and the difference between, the girls of the High Rollers and the usual run of bovine damsels we are accustomed to see with class of attractions. See the saucy ladies, the bevy of humorous men, who are so diametrically different to the common lot. The High Rollers will appear at the Myers Grand Saturday, Sept. 28.

MAPS AT LOW PRICES

Hixson Rock County Maps at Less Than Cost

The Gazette has a number of the Hixson maps of Rock county published in May, 1900, which will be sold at the low price of $2 each. The price does not cover the cost of production and is much less than they originally sold at. They are made on a scale of 1 1/2 inches to the mile, mounted on cloth 14x17 inches, and cover the county in detail giving cities, villages, sectional lines, number of section, school houses, town houses, cemeteries, roads, streams, number of acres contained and name of owner.

Every land owner, as well as anyone who has occasion to note the geographical condition of the county cannot well afford to be without one.

Regular meeting of the O. E. S. at Masonic hall at 8 o'clock Wednesday evening. A full attendance is desired as business of importance will come before the meeting. The O. E. S. study class will meet at the hall Wednesday afternoon at three o'clock.

Every Exertion a Task Every Care a Burden

There is failure of this strength to do and the power to endure; there is weakness "all over" that is persistent and constant.

The vital functions are impaired, food does not nourish, and the whole system is run down.

A medicine that strengthens the stomach, perfects digestion, invigorates and tones is needed.

What Hood's Sarsaparilla did for Mrs. L. B. Garland, Shady, Tenn., it has done for others. She took it when she was all run down—without appetite, losing flesh, and unable to do her work. It restored her appetite, increased her weight, and made her well and strong. This is her own uncollected statement.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Promises to cure and keeps the promise. The earlier treatment is begun the better—begin it today.

Oriental Rugs

The real value of Oriental Rugs is shown by the length of time, they wear. You can save much money by buying them here. Large city stores do not pretend to mark them at such small profits. Our assortment is very large and the rugs come from New York's leading importers. Wise people are buying Oriental Rugs at home now, they are beginning to realize that it costs much to run a city store and the exorbitant prices put on Oriental Rugs and other novelties go a good ways toward paying big rents, etc.

The proper place to purchase pure liquors is from the man who makes a specialty of them. You buy your coal from the coal dealer because you know that he knows all about coal. The same reasoning should apply to your whiskey, wines, beer, etc. Impure liquor for family or medicinal purposes is worse than none at all.

We wholesale and retail every kind of good liquor.

JEFFERSON FAIR IS A BIG HUMMER

Conservative Estimate Puts the Crowd Yesterday at 15,000—Dane Co. Fair Also a Success.

Jefferson, Wis., Sept. 25.—The first day of the Jefferson county fair was a hummer in every respect and a record breaker in attendance. Conservative estimates put the crowd at 15,000.

Entries were closed in all departments and judging commenced before noon. The educational department has the largest list of entries in the history of the fair, there being six hundred individual entries in this department. The art hall is filled to overflowing. The exhibits of live stock are large and the entries here could scarcely be accommodated.

Yesterday was children's day at the fair, every child of school age, being admitted free. The Cambridge and Waterloo bands furnished the music for the day. A carnival company gave an exhibition between heats of the races, consisting of six acts, and these will be repeated each day during the fair. The evening show on Main street last night kept the crowd in town until a late hour. The display of fireworks was very good.

Dane County Fair
Madison, Wis., Sept. 26.—Fully 10,000 people attended the Dane county fair today. Most of the people came from the country, but many were from the city. President S. L. Sheldon was gratified by the attendance.

The prospects for the next two days are excellent. It is estimated that the attendance today will be 15,000 and Friday, Madison day, fully 30,000. The management confidently expects good weather for the next two days. The attractions were fine, and the races especially were close and exciting.

William E. Helms Dead

William E. Helms, a former resident of this city, was accidentally killed by the cars at Eastward, Cal. Word of his tragic death was received this morning by relatives in this city from the roadmaster of the railroad on which Mr. Helms was employed and from the coroner, but neither telegram gave any particulars and it is not known whether his remains will be brought to this city for interment or not. Deceased was well-known in this city and was a brother of Miss Annie Helms, of this city, Mrs. Alex. Wiggins of Footville, and J. G. Helms of Edgerton. He leaves a wife.

She telegraphed a real estate man of Tower Hill to come to pay her fine.

The Races at Beloit.

The races at Beloit yesterday were very fair, but not beyond criticism. The horses were not called for the races until after two o'clock, although the association rules say that they must be called at 1:30 after September 1st. In consequence of this many of the town patrons were obliged to leave for home before the races were finished. The scoring was also long and tedious.

At the close of the third heat in the 2:17 pace Aunt Laura owned by J. L. Fisher of this city made a break just under the wire and became tangled in the pacing hoppers and fell. Joe Bassett, the driver was thrown from the sulky and landed on his head and shoulders, but fortunately was not much injured, but was considerably shaken up.

After Minetta, the Wausau mare, had won three heats in the 2:25 pace the judges declared the 3rd heat no heat on the ground of collusion. The decision was very questionable as Minetta did win three heats and the race. The race was unfinished and went over until today.

Mr. L. Lawrence, of 408 S. Franklin St., engineer at the Janesville Electric Light Co., says:

"Seven years ago I injured my back by falling through a bridge near Aston, in the Rock river. I was on a traction engine, its weight broke through, and the whole thing went into the stream. Since that time my back has ached by spells, sometimes very severely. If I caught cold it settled in my kidneys and if I brought a strain on my back lifting, the result was a bad backache and sharp twinges of pain in my loins. I procured Doan's Kidney Pills and after I used them I was free from backache. I am in better health than at any time since falling through the bridge."

Dyspepsia Cure

Dyspeptics cannot regain health and strength by living upon half rations. They must eat plenty of good food and digest it. To enable them to do this they should use something that will help the stomach to do its work. KODOL DYSPEPSIA CURE is such a preparation. It digests what you eat and supplies the substances needed to build up the worn out digestive organs.

Prof. J. Iverson, of Lonaconing, Md., says: "For thirteen years I suffered agony from dyspepsia and neuralgia of the stomach. I tried almost everything and doctors drugged me nearly to death with morphine, but temporary relief was all I could obtain till I was advised to use KODOL DYSPEPSIA CURE. The first dose gave me relief. I bought my first bottle in March, 1900, and I have not had a single pain since. It has completely cured me. I cannot endorse it too highly."

TELEGRAPHIC SERVICE

The Gazette receives the full daily telegraphic report of the Scripps-McKee League.

WISCONSIN WEATHER FORECAST

Generally fair tonight and Friday.

THE STATE FAIR.

More or less discussion is going on just now in the columns of the state press, concerning the appropriation of $100,000 for the state fair, as suggested by Professor Henry of the state university.

It is not at all likely that the suggestion will be adopted, as the next legislature will be well advised of public sentiment before it convenes.

The people of the state share a feeling of pride in the success of the state fair, although but a small fraction of them ever attend, as stated recently by a contributor to these columns. The Milwaukee exposition and the county fairs, have in a measure, crowded out the old time state exhibit, and the latter, which is almost distinctly agricultural, is recognized as the farmers' convenient meeting place.

Many counties in the state have established a reputation for excellence, both in the way of management and exhibits, and local pride has been, and will continue to be, the incentive.

These county fairs are self-supporting, or if not the state is not called upon to make good deficiencies. They are located in agricultural centers, easy of access, and free from unfamiliar surroundings, and the home like feeling that is so noticeable at these annual gatherings, is one of the strong features that contributes so largely to success.

With due respect to Milwaukee, the city in which every citizen in the commonwealth feels an interest, because it is the metropolis of the state, it is safe to assume that the people generally do not favor an extravagant appropriation for the purpose of supporting the state fair in the Cream City. Many people thought it was a mistake when the fair was permanently located on the lake shore. While the city is easy of access and possesses some advantages, that small inland cities are deprived of, the fact remains that the location is at one side of the state, and the patronage from the country districts is less than is accorded to some of the county fairs in the interior.

The Gazette believes that the state fair should be encouraged, but not to the extent, in state funds, advocated by Professor Henry.

WHY NOT HAVE A NEW DEPOT?

The action of the common council in granting the Milwaukee road permission to cross Prospect avenue so as to complete the new freight depot, is commendable and meets with general approval.

Now that the good work is commenced, why not continue it, and say to the company that is doing so much for the city, "Go ahead with your passenger station." This is a good line to act, while the company is favorably disposed and before permanent improvements are made on the old building.

It is too late for a new station to be built this fall, but the company would doubtless be glad, to build in the spring if assured that objections would be removed.

The natural place for the new building, and the most convenient for both the company and the city, is on the site selected. With all tracks removed but one, the Jackson street crossing would be much safer than now, and would be more generally used.

The company is about to put on two through trains from St. Paul and others may be added later. The new station will not only be of great convenience, but it will serve as a good advertising medium for the city, without a dollar of outlay.

There is every reason why the company should have some assurance that their requests will be granted, before plans are made for extensive changes on the old building. If too much money is expended in enlarging it, the city may be deprived of a useful and ornamental structure for some years to come.

Public sentiment is with the company, and the council will render popular service by removing objections, and permitting the company to carry out their original plans, without further opposition.

THE DIFFERENCE.

The press of the country is being so severely criticised during these days of excitement, when public sentiment is so thoroughly aroused, that the publishers of almost all classes of journals, come in for a share of censure.

In the case of the journals themselves, the "pot is calling the kettle black," with so much vigor that it would be difficult to find a publisher anywhere who would be honest enough to admit, that his individual publication was tinged with yellow.

It is well for the public, as well as the press, to bear in mind the fact, that there is a marked line of distinction between the criticism of policy and public acts in official life, and ridicule and defamation of private character.

A man's public life belongs to the people. If he is official position, however humble or exalted, he is the servant of the people. His private life and character may be unblemished, or it may be marred and stained. In either event it is a sacred precinct that may not be ruthlessly entered. But his public life is an open book, subject to approval or criticism at will. The approval may be fulsome, as is sometimes the case, and the censure may be unjust, as more frequently happens, but there is no law to regulate either, and it is extremely doubtful if one could be enacted.

Public men who occupy official position, and are clothed with the authority that the position affords, whether of municipal, county, state or federal distinction, are usually the creatures of some political party. A plurality vote may clothe them with authority, and in this case they are not the choice of a majority of the constituency that they are elected to serve.

Where patronage is conferred upon the official, and it is seldom lacking, public service sometimes becomes a burlesque and sharp criticism results. Private opinion is freely expressed. The man is denounced as a liar, the betrayer of public confidence, a fanatic, a demagogue, and is slandered and maligned without let or hindrance.

The press that is expected to furnish, not only the news, but expression of sentiment on public men and measures as well, has forestalled private opinion, and with a spirit of enterprise that is characteristic of the calling, holds up to public view, not only public acts of the official, but a vivid picture of imaginary motives.

These pictures of imagination are frequently very true to the life portrayed. And the result is a safeguard to public service. The line that separates wholesome criticism and abuse is an imaginary line, and it is extremely easy to ignore it and enter the field of burlesque and unjust censure.

The attitude of most of the Chicago press toward ex-Governor Tanner during his administration, is a case in point, and it received well merited condemnation. The conservative press of Wisconsin is just now being criticised by its opponents, but the case is not parallel. Measures, and not men, is the Wisconsin issue. Sensational journalism, under whatever title, has a yellow shading, and is demoralizing. Add to this feature of press freedom, vindictiveness, and a spirit to destroy both public and private character, and you have the bright yellow hue. Supplement this with unrest, and a determination to destroy government, and ignore property rights, and anarchy stands out in bold relief, and back of it is the education that has been so innocently, and yet so persistently, furnished.

The sad lessons of the hour should put a check on both tongue and pen. When this is done, with thought and reason in control, the atmosphere, not only in journalism, but in many other departments, will be purified, and more wholesome.

The "we" editor of the La Crosse Chronicle, who punctuates every sentence of editorial expression with what "we think about it," says he is willing to invest $50 for a little republican league information. This evidences a spirit of liberality that is extravagant. If "we" will send a two-cent stamp to Dan Starkey he will be supplied with information enough to keep him busy for a week.

The new Milwaukee organ is thrown into convulsions over the prospective expense of the Republican League. To its vivid imagination a million dollars will be used as a corruption fund. If the new organ will keep its wearing apparel intact, and pay strict attention to the interests of its promoters, it will get a good deal more out of life than needless worry.

Judge Lewis of Buffalo, uttered a great truth, when he said to the Czolgosz jury, that the spirit of mob law, so prevalent in this country today, is more dangerous to public welfare than anarchy. What the nation needs as much as any other one thing is a wholesome respect for law, and a determination to avoid all deeds of lawless violence.

It is an honor to the state and a blessing to communities, that public spirited men like Mr. Stephenson, of Marinette, are enrolled as citizens. Uncle Isaac, as he is familiarly dubbed, has recently given his home city $30,000 for a library building, showing a spirit of generosity that is characteristic of the man. His name and memory will live beyond the turmoil of political strife.

The Milwaukee organ is very much disturbed over some preliminary work that is being done by the Republican League. There is nothing secret about this work as there is nothing to conceal. A poll is to be made of the state showing the political complexion of every voter in it. The idea is not original, and the plan to be pursued is very much the same as already adopted and in operation by the primary law machine.

President Shaffer now crawls out at the small end of the horn and denounces his associates for deserting him in the thick of the fight. It is well for labor unions that some of the leaders possessed the good sense to desert the errat leader. Some men never know when they are beaten, and Shaffer seems to belong to this class.

The Oshkosh Northwestern may be interested to know that Mr. Whitehead's address is Hillsdale, Ill., where the senator has been engaged in looking after private business for the past month. It is too bad for him to miss the marked attention accorded by the Oshkosh organ, a waste of energy that creates no disturbance in this neck of the woods.

PRESS COMMENT.

Racine Journal: "It is asserted by one of the head men in a certain department at Madison opinionates government is but an employment bureau. Perhaps this is the reason the executive's private secretary so easily runs the thing."

Council Bluffs Nonpareil: The bullets were not poisoned but the hearts which fired them were.

Fond du Lac Commonwealth: If Oom Paul can gain any satisfaction out of sending new emissaries to the United States, or even by coming himself, he is certainly entitled to it. He will find, however, that he has to deal with a chief executive who has already declared that he proposes to stand by the policy which President McKinley outlined.

Racine News: The police seem to be following the drag net system in arresting anarchists wherever they are found; and really, in the existing state of public sentiment one would think that jail would seem more like home to them than their somewhat precarious shelter outside.

Milwaukee Sentinel: The intemperance of temperance men of the Woolly stripe, men who pretend to be inspired by high ideals and to practice the most exalted Christian virtues, is no more admirable than the intemperance of the anarchist, the yellow journalist, or the man who imbibes red liquor. Of the four species of intoxication the latter is certainly not the most harmful.

Superior Telegram: Already the Washington correspondents are sending reports and counter-reports in regard to what President Roosevelt will do in 1904. They are wasting the time, both of themselves and of the public. Mr. Roosevelt will be accorded a unanimous nomination in 1904 and no one can prevent it.

Milwaukee News: The Schley inquiry is disclosing that naval men do not differ from other mortals in regard to their hindsight being better than their foresight.

La Crosse Republican-Leader: What a difference in the national feeling today and that of the dark days following Lincoln's assassination. But there was no Roosevelt then.

Oshkosh Northwestern: One of the points made against Admiral Schley at the court of inquiry is that he was not "expeditious" in attacking the Spaniards. As a matter of fact he saved his ships from unknown dangers until the Spanish fleet was where he could strike, and Admiral Cervera will testify that after that Schley was expeditious enough to satisfy the most critical.

Madison Democrat: Speaking of the danger of keeping nests of anarchists among us, Mr. Cleveland says: "Nothing can guard against this menace except the teaching and practice of the best citizenship, the exposure of the ends and aims of the gospel of discontent and hatred of social order, and the brave enactment and execution of repressive laws."

Marinette Eagle: They asked for a Stone and were given a Murphy.

PHILOSOPHY OF THE STREET.

It is generally easy to imagine how things could be made so different.

There is certainly little kindness in telling people the truth about themselves.

One of the most pathetic things in the world is to meet an old friend who has lost his capacity to earn a living.

The woman who wants to continue to be regarded as an angel would be wise to refrain from loading down her husband with bundles.

Men who are always looking for wrong motives in others seldom are so immaculate themselves as not to need an occasional trip to the laundry.

The trouble with most people is that the situation which confronts them always seems the most serious they have ever met. Public sentiment consists to a large degree of the views of a few leaders, retailed by those who are unaware of the source of their inspiration.

The woman who is not satisfied with a modest home would be equally unhappy in a castle as soon as she learned all the closets and corners. The memory of a man's mother is a thing that keeps him from doing lots of things that charity would deem questionable, and justice pronounce outrageous.

It is a fact that man seldom escapes being controlled by woman while he lives. First it is his mother, then his girl and afterwards his wife; and woe be unto him if he remains single and becomes the slave of his housekeeper.—Milwaukee Journal.

REFLECTIONS OF A BACHELOR.

Mourning hides a multitude of other feelings.

We water our grief with tears to grow afresh.

Little children grow to be old men; old men to be little children.

A woman's generosity seldom goes beyond her own flesh and blood. It is not easy for the average woman to be happy. She must be happier than anybody else around her.—New York Press.

WOMAN'S POINT OF VIEW.

That the man who boasts that he could solve the servant girl problem ought to spend a day in an employment office.

That few men are sufficiently grateful for the love of a good woman.

That the man whose family has returned from the summer vacation now enjoys the luxury of having his bed made regularly.

That a man will sometimes work harder trying to borrow a dollar than he would to earn it.—Philadelphia Times.

JUDGE HENRY A. PATTERSON DEAD; PROMINENT MAN IN JANESVILLE

Died at His Home in This City This Morning, the Cause Being Congestion of the Lungs—Brief Biographical Sketch of a Worthy Citizen.

A good man has gone to his eternal reward and Judge Henry A. Patterson has passed beyond the scenes of earth. His death occurred at his home, 24 Milton avenue, this morning at 10:30 o'clock, the immediate cause being congestion of the lungs. Judge Patterson had been in feeble health ever since he suffered a stroke of paralysis over ten years ago. This summer he contracted a severe cold, and one week ago today, while attending the memorial meeting for President McKinley in the opera house he was overcome with a feeling of suffocation. On his way home from the meeting his strength gave out completely and he had to be assisted to his home. He recovered somewhat but on Tuesday night he was taken worse and his cold developed into congestion of the lungs, which, in his weakened condition, he was unable to withstand.

Judge Patterson was one of Janesville's prominent men. An able lawyer, he served five years as justice of the peace, four years as district attorney, two years as a member of the state legislature, eight years as postmaster and six years as judge of the municipal court.

He was seventy-two years of age and during his long life of usefulness he surrounded himself with a host of personal friends, while he was universally respected and esteemed for his qualities of mind and heart. His death is a severe blow to the members of his own family and especially was he idolized by his two grandsons. No arrangements for the funeral have been made.

A Brief Biography

Judge Henry A. Patterson was born in the town of Lindley, Steuben County, N. Y., June 8, 1829, his ancestry on the paternal side being Scotch-Irish, while his mother was of New England origin. He was reared to manhood in his native town and received his primary education in its public schools. He continued his studies at the Genesee Wesleyan seminary at Lima, after which he attended the law school of Ballston, Saratoga county, being admitted to practice before the New York bar in 1854. In the following year he came to the west where a broader field was afforded and settled in this city where he has resided ever since, a period of forty-six years.

When Mr. Patterson came to Janesville he formed a law partnership with David Noggle and Charles G. Williams under the firm name of Noggle, Williams & Patterson. Mr. Patterson was the last surviving member of the firm, which was destined to give three men of rare ability to public service. The senior partner, Judge Noggle, was called to the bench, became one of the most distinguished jurists of the state and was subsequently elected to the honorable position of chief justice.

POLICE KEPT ON A STEADY JUMP

Timid Men and Women See a Burglar Behind Every Bush—Noise of Any Kind Alarming.

Chief Hogan and Officer Brown are kept on the jump nights looking up burglar scares. Every time anyone that looks at all suspicious is seen in the neighborhood of a dwelling house, a hurry-up call is sent to the police station for an officer.

Last evening Mrs. R. W. Edden of 259 South Bluff street was sitting on her porch, which is covered with vines so she could not be seen from the outside. She noticed two suspicious looking men coming up the driveway toward the house and kept quiet to see what they would do. The men looked the house over for awhile and being satisfied that no one was at home walked up and started to come up onto the porch.

They were part way up the steps when she cried out and they turned and ran away. Dr. Edden was at E. C. Bailey's, a few doors distance and was notified by his wife. He at once called up the police and Officer Brown went at once to the place, but a careful search failed to reveal any one. Chief Hogan also took a hand in the hunt but could and no suspicious characters.

Miss Mary Rexford, who resides on Washington street was certain some one was trying to get into her home last evening and telephoned for an officer. Chief Hogan hustled out there but could discover no one to arouse Miss Rexford's suspicions.

Funeral of John Furey

The funeral of the late John Furey of Chicago was held this morning at 9 a. m. from St. Patrick's church. The Rev. J. J. Collins conducted the services which were very impressive. A large number of friends and relatives attended the services and followed the body to the grave. There was a profusion of beautiful flowers and palms sent as a last token of regard. The interment was at Mount Olivet cemetery. The pall bearers were John Casey, Thomas Casey, James Connors, T. F. Denning, George P. Crowe and P. J. Jennings. The last four are members of the Chicago fire department of which the deceased was a member. Mr. Jennings was captain of the company to which the deceased belonged. Among those from out of the city were Mrs. Rowe and Miss Marshall of Chicago.

The morning after the robe and overcoat were stolen from the buggy in front of the Methodist church, Officer Brown visited F. M. Hibbard's place of business and described the stolen property to him, and warned him not to buy it, and to inform the police if anyone brought it in. Hibbard said he would, but within two hours after Brown called on him he had the stolen goods in his possession. Chief Hogan had considerable trouble getting them from him yesterday.

Chief Hogan is looking up some other matters before he brings young Marsden up before the judge.

A CANDIDATE FOR REFORM SCHOOL

RAY MARSDEN'S ARREST MAY CLEAR UP A MYSTERY.

Chief Hogan Enters His Room and Finds Four Rifles and 7,000 Cartridges That Had Been Stolen—Some Other Thefts Also Charged to Him.

According to all reports, Ray Marsden, the sixteen year old nephew of Miss Mary Kimball is on the road to a term in the reform school. His arrest yesterday afternoon may throw light on three burglaries that have been committed of late. A short time ago a man came here and opened up a shooting gallery in the Eldred store on West Milwaukee street. When he closed up he packed his rifles and cartridges in a chest and left them for a friend in this city to ship to him as soon as he found a location. He located at Freeport and sent for his stuff. His friend found when he went to ship the outfit that the gun box had been broken open and three 22-calibre rifles had been taken and also 10,000 cartridges.

Chief Hogan was notified and went on a still hunt for the missing goods. He finally discovered that young Marsden had some rifles and had shot a boy in the foot with one of them last week. He went down to Miss Kimball's home where young Marsden lived and in a sack in his room found four rifles and 7,000 cartridges. Three of the rifles being those taken from the shooting gallery outfit. A further search on the part of the chief revealed the balance of the cartridges, a revolver and a pair of horse clippers that were stolen between Saturday and Sunday night from L. C. O'Brien's, a pair of wire cutters and a tape line hidden in a commode drawer.

Miss Kimball said the young man was out in the country with a book agent delivering books and had a rig from Ryan's livery. Officer Brown kept watch of the livery stable and when the young man appeared arrested him and put him in the lock-up. The police were suspicious that he knew who took the overcoat and robe from a buggy in front of the Methodist church on Sunday night.

A first he denied all knowledge of the theft and finally admitted he took them and had pawned them to F. M. Hibbard for $1. The goods were recovered from Hibbard and also the clippers that were stolen from O'Brien's.

The value of all of the stuff recovered amounts to about $100 and is a good find, on the part of the police. Last night the boy was taken to the county jail where he will remain until his case is disposed of. His father and mother reside in Fond du Lac, but the boy has been making his home with his aunt, Miss Kimball.

The morning after the robe and overcoat were stolen from the buggy in front of the Methodist church, Officer Brown visited F. M. Hibbard's place of business and described the stolen property to him, and warned him not to buy it, and to inform the police if anyone brought it in. Hibbard said he would, but within two hours after Brown called on him he had the stolen goods in his possession. Chief Hogan had considerable trouble getting them from him yesterday.

Chief Hogan is looking up some other matters before he brings young Marsden up before the judge.

CZOLGOSZ BREAKING DOWN

The Strain of the Trial Weakened Him.

HE IS NO LONGER DEFIANT.

His Meeting With His Father, Brother and Sister Completed His Humiliation and He Is Now Miserable—Said He Couldn't Talk.

Buffalo, N. Y., Sept. 26.—The assassin of President McKinley has broken down. He is no longer the defiant anarchist, glorying in his infamous crime. Isolation and treatment like any other criminal has brought about the change.

He expected to be made much of; he thought his evil eminence would be a pedestal from which he would astound the world.

Instead of that he has remained unvisited in a cell, and in his two days in court nobody spoke to him, and the routine of his trial and conviction bowed him down.

It has been whispered by the guards about him for several days that he was weakening. His meeting with his father, brother and sister completed the breaking down, and he is a subdued and miserable man.

In court one of the guards asked him if he wanted to say anything. The assassin whispered back: "I can't."

The visit of the family was a worse ordeal even than waiting in court for the jury to pronounce his doom. Worse even than what awaited him this afternoon, when he was brought forth to be sentenced to death.

ANARCHISTS ARE INDICTED.

Charged With Sending an Objectionable Paper Through Mails.

Tacoma, Sept. 26.—Charles Govan, James W. Adams, and James E. Larkin, members of the Home Anarchist colony in this county, have been arrested under an indictment found by the federal grand jury at Spokane charging them with depositing in the mails a lewd, obscene and lascivious newspaper. The prisoners were brought to Tacoma and committed to jail pending examination. An indictment was also returned against G. Morong, who, it is claimed, was the author of the objectionable article. Morong is now in Massachusetts, but will be arrested and brought here for trial. The newspaper in question is the official organ at the "Home," and is called "Discontent," and advocates anarchy and free love.

Incendiaries Fire a Mill.

Mattoon, Ill., Sept. 26.—A palpable attempt by incendiaries was made to destroy the Prairie Queen mills in this city, which was frustrated only by the sharp work of the fire department. A bunch of ravelings and waste soaked in oil was placed at the foot of the shafting on the first floor and ignited, the flames following the inclosed shaft to the fourth story. This city has suffered $250,000 by fire losses since June 15 and most of the conflagrations are believed to be due to incendiaries.

Rich Merchant Arrested.

Fort Wayne, Ind., Sept. 26.—Montford W. Fay, commission merchant and president of the M. W. Fay Warehouse company, was arrested here on a charge of embezzlement. The warrant was procured by a New Orleans commission house, which claims he has improperly used $800. Mr. Fay has been a leader in business circles here for several years and his arrest caused much surprise and speculation.

WEST PORTER

West Porter, Sept. 26.—School opened in the Wilder district last week. Miss Lula Weaver of Evansville is teacher.

Miss Letta Jones is teaching in the Tupper school this fall.

Miss Josie Dawson is teaching in the Forest Academy again this fall.

Miss Ida Van Slyke and little son Dale of West Pullman, Chicago, were guests at her cousins, W. M. Tolles and family last week.

Peter Brunell, who has been on the sick list for a few days is getting much better.

Most of the farmers in this vicinity have finished shedding tobacco and some have finished cutting corn.

There is to be a dance at McCarthy's new barn next Friday night, Sept. 27th. Music by Smart's orchestra.

Invitations are out for a party at the Porter Band hall, Friday night, October 4th. Music is to be furnished by Leaver's orchestra.

GOVERNMENT AID IS ASKED.

Forest Fires Near El Dora, Col., Are Dangerous.

El Dora, Col., Sept. 26.—John C. Joyce, register of the state land board, and M. C. O'Brien, special agent of the United States land office at Denver, have begun communications with the interior department at Washington with a view to securing assistance from the government in fighting the forest fires in this section that have been ravaging the timber sections and threatening the settlements. A high wind has been blowing for the last twenty-four hours, and the fire on Tennessee mountain has become a roaring furnace. Unless the fires are placed under control soon there is no telling what the outcome will be. There is no danger at this time to the town of El Dora.

THE OBITUARY RECORD.

Charles Mac Is Dead.
Mattoon, Ill., Sept. 26.—Charles Mac, past grand commander of the Grand Commandery of Knights Templar of Illinois, died at the residence of his son, Carl Mac, in Arkansas City, Kas., of paralysis. He formerly was prominent as a superintendent of railroads now merged in the Vandalla and Big Four systems, and was at one time mayor of this city. Mr. Mac was 68 years old. The body will be brought here for burial Friday.

Illinoisan Dies in Honolulu.
San Francisco, Sept. 26. Honolulu, Sept. 18.—David A. Ray, United States marshal of the territory, died suddenly of heart disease. He was at one time editor of the Bloomington Pantagraph in Illinois, and later was secretary of the interstate commerce commission of the United States senate.

Socialism Is Condemned.
London, Sept. 26.—The Brussels correspondent of the Times says the congress of trades leagues of Belgium has just closed at Bruges. This congress is different from most trades meetings because it is under the direct patronage of the Catholic church and has the approval of the Vatican. The business included the discussion of measures to ameliorate the conditions of labor affecting both sexes, and for the promotion of technical education of primary schools. All tendencies toward socialism were strongly condemned.

Tragedy at Plymouth, N. Y.
Norwich, N. Y., Sept. 26.—Henry W. Wood of Norwich shot his former housekeeper, Mrs. Elizabeth Greenleaf, and then committed suicide. The tragedy occurred at Plymouth. Mrs. Greenleaf had been keeping house for Wood about three years. Two weeks ago she left him and went to live with Louis Carneros, her brother in law, at Plymouth. Wood had brooded much since her departure. The woman is not expected to live.

Drowned in Pan of Milk.
Davenport, Iowa, Sept. 26.—Joseph Hessel and his wife, who live on a farm near Oto, are mourning the death of their infant son. The child was asleep in a cradle. On the floor was a pan of milk. The baby in its sleep rolled from the cradle into the milk and was drowned. Its mother found it there dead.

Many Return From Nome.
Port Townsend, Wash., Sept. 26.—The steamer Roanoke has arrived from Nome, bringing 397 passengers and $350,000 in gold.

STATE UNIVERSITY IS OPENED TODAY

Upper Classmen and Sophomores Are Having a Great Deal of Fun with the Freshmen.

Madison, Wis., Sept. 26.—Work at the university of Wisconsin began today. There is some delay in getting the freshmen classes into running order, but the other classes have in some instances been assigned lessons and will be expected to attend lectures. This is especially true in the law school, where there is less confusion in organizing the classes at the beginning of the school year.

As usual, the upper classmen and sophomores are having a great deal of fun with the green freshmen, whose experience at college is numbered by hours. He is not familiar with chestnuts, nor does he know the name of the different buildings. He does not know where he lives nor does he know the location of his baggage, which some shrewd expressman said would be delivered within an hour. The transfer agents have had a great amount of work to attend to and will have until the end of the week.

Each year at this time the scenes in the vicinity of the Madison depots are busy ones. Every train brings its quota of students, whose thirst for a higher education has been sufficient to lead him to college.

While the former student returns with a happy expression on his countenance, and with hope in his heart, the young man, or woman, who is about to enter at the threshold of his college career, leaves the train with a feeling akin to dread. He may have some misgivings concerning the wisdom of attempting to go further or he may wonder if the game is worth the candle.

Backache.

So many women suffer from it. It mars alike their hours of work and pleasure. Backache is generally a symptom of derangement of the delicate womanly organs. It is useless therefore to apply plasters and similar local treatments. A cure can only be effected when the cause of the ache is removed.

The use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription will cure the debilitating drains, the inflammation, ulceration and displacement which cause backache, headache, and many other aches and pains. "Favorite Prescription" contains no alcohol and is absolutely free from opium, cocaine and other narcotics. It agrees with the most delicate persons.

"I took your medicine six months and I feel now like a new person," writes Miss Annie Stephens, of Belleville, Wood Co., W. Va. "I have no backache, no headache, no pain anywhere. I took seven bottles of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, and seven bottles of his 'Golden Medical Discovery.' I think there is no medicine equal to Dr. Pierce's 'Favorite Prescription.'"
